Data Protection Policy

The Data Protection Act 2018, which incorporates the European Union General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) which replaces the 1998 Data Control Regulations, is designed for the protection of personal data and prevention of access or inappropriate use, has been embraced by this Club

Information held by the Club is limited to that provided by members when joining the Club and, as updated from time-to-time, together with such contact and membership history that is necessary to allow the efficient running of the Club

Your email address collected by the Club are stored electronically in password-protected form and are only made available to Club officials to the extent that is necessary for the performance of their duties.

If you agree to this please, continue to click the contact button and send your email to the General Secretary.
